- (5) A revocation of immunity under this section—
- (a) has immediate effect;
 - (b) does not prevent a person making a further request for immunity under section 19 (but see Part 2 of Schedule 5 for provision about requests that overlap with revoked immunities).

27 False statements: offence

- (1) A person commits an offence by making a false statement to the ICRIR in connection with any of its functions under sections 19 to 22.

The historical record of deaths

28 Production of the historical record

- (1) The historical record is to consist of a single document which gives an account of the circumstances in which each of the relevant deaths occurred.
- (2) The ICRIR must take all reasonable steps—
- (a) to identify all deaths that were caused by conduct forming part of the Troubles, and
 - (b) to identify and obtain—
 - (i) the information about the relevant deaths that is publicly available, and
 - (ii) other information about the relevant deaths which the ICRIR considers is likely to be of use in producing the historical record.

- (6) A person may provide information if requested to do so by the ICRIR, but only if the provision of the information would not breach—
 - (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the person, or
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
- (7) When deciding whether it is reasonable to take a particular step for the purposes of subsection (2)(a) or (b), the ICRIR may, in particular, take into account whether that step would, in the ICRIR’s view, involve disproportionate effort or cost.
- (8) In this section—

“relevant deaths” means those deaths which the ICRIR identifies, after taking all reasonable steps in accordance with subsection (2)(a), as deaths that were caused by conduct forming part of the Troubles, except those deaths for which reviews are carried out under section 13;

“relevant event” means an event in which a relevant death occurred.

29 Publication of the historical record

- (1) The ICRIR must publish the historical record.

Here “the data protection legislation” has the same meaning as in the Data Protection Act 2018 (see section 3(9) of that Act).
- (9) Prohibition F: the disclosure is prohibited by Parts 1 to 7, and Chapter 1 of Part 9, of the Investigatory Powers Act 2016.

Criminal investigations and proceedings

38 No criminal investigations except through ICIR reviews

SCHEDULE 5

Section 19

NO IMMUNITY IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES

PART 1

SEXUAL OFFENCE, EXISTING CONVICTION OR ONGOING PROSECUTION

Application of this Part

- 1 This Part of this Schedule applies if—
- (a) a person (P) has requested the ICIR to grant P immunity from prosecution (the “current request”) under section 19 and conditions A to C are met, but
 - (b) this Schedule prohibits a grant of immunity for an identified possible offence (see paragraphs 2 and 3).

 for the purposes of this Part of this Schedule (including provision specifying offences which are to comprise, or to be included in, that definition).

(5) Regulations under this paragraph are subject to negative procedure.

Prohibition of grant of immunity: conviction or ongoing prosecution

- 3 (1) A grant of immunity for an identified possible offence is prohibited if—
- (a) P has a conviction for the identified possible offence,
 - (b) P is being prosecuted for the identified possible offence, or
 - (c) P is being prosecuted for any other offence (whether or not a Troubles-related offence), and the immunity requests panel is satisfied that granting P immunity from prosecution for the identified possible offence would risk having, or would have, a prejudicial effect on that prosecution.
- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph—
- (a) P is “being prosecuted for” an offence if a public prosecution of P for the offence has begun and is continuing;
 - (b) a “public prosecution” means any prosecution other than a private prosecution;
 - (c) a public prosecution of P for an offence “has begun” if a prosecutor has made the decision to prosecute P for that offence;

Grant of immunity prohibited for all identified possible offences

- 4 (1) If this Schedule prohibits a grant of immunity for all of the identified possible offences, the ICIR must not grant P immunity from prosecution in relation to the current request.

Grant of immunity prohibited for some identified possible offences

- 5 (1) This paragraph applies if this Schedule prohibits a grant of immunity for some (but not all) of the identified possible offences.
- (2) The immunity requests panel must not decide under section 19(7) that P should be granted immunity from prosecution for—

- (2) When dealing with the new request, the duty of the immunity requests panel to decide (under section 19(7)) what immunity should be granted to P has effect subject to sub-paragraphs (3) and (4).
- (3) The panel must not decide that P should be granted immunity from prosecution for any identified possible offence which was also within the scope of the revoked immunity.
- (4) When the panel is determining under section 19(9) or (11)(b) a description of offences for which P should be granted immunity from prosecution, the panel must frame the description so that it does not consist of, or include, one or more offences which were also within the scope of the revoked immunity.
- (5) If the panel decides in accordance with sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) that there are no offences for which P should be granted immunity—
- (a) the panel must decide that P should not be granted immunity from prosecution, and
 - (b) the ICIR must not grant P immunity from prosecution (and accordingly section 19(1) does not apply).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph the new request is “concluded” when the ICRIR gives P written notice of the outcome of the request in accordance with section 19(13)(a).

 - (b) is prohibited.
- (3) But the Secretary of State may notify the Commissioner for Investigations that the proposed disclosure is prohibited only if, in the Secretary of State’s view, the disclosure of the protected international information would, or would be likely to, damage international relations.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

The “relevant decision period”

- 6 (1) In paragraph 4 or 5 “relevant decision period” (in relation to a proposed disclosure notified to the Secretary of State) means—

- “relevant decision period” means the period for remaking that decision in compliance with that direction.

PART 2

- (2) An initial appeal must be brought within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the affected report is published under section 17.

Further appeal against an initial appeal

- 11 (1) This paragraph applies if the relevant court has determined an initial appeal.
- (2) The person who brought the initial appeal may bring an appeal in the appeal court against the determination of the initial appeal (a “further appeal”).
- (3) But that person may bring the further appeal only with the leave of—
- (a) the relevant court which determined the initial appeal, or
 - (b) the appeal court.
- (4) The court may not give such leave unless satisfied that—
- (a) the further appeal would raise some important point of principle or practice, or
 - (b) there is some other compelling reason for the further appeal to be heard.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

Application of the Justice and Security Act 2013

- 12 (1) Any proceedings on an initial appeal or a further appeal (including any proceedings before the Supreme Court) are to be treated as section 6 proceedings (within the meaning of the JSA 2013) for the purposes of sections 8 to 14 of the JSA 2013.
- (2) Sections 8 to 14 of the JSA 2013 apply in relation to proceedings treated as section 6 proceedings by sub-paragraph (1) as if—
- (a) the Secretary of State were the relevant person, and
 - (b) the references to the interests of national security in sections 8, 11 and 13 of the JSA 2013 were references to the interests of national security or the interests of the international relations of the United Kingdom.
- (3) But sections 8 to 14 of the JSA 2013, and rules of court relating to section 6 proceedings, do not prevent an appeal under this paragraph from being considered in the presence of—
- (a) the Commissioner for Investigations,
 - (b) another ICRIR officer nominated by the Commissioner for Investigations, or
 - (c) a legal representative of the ICRIR.

Interpretation

- 13 (1) In this Part of this Schedule—

- (2) Expressions used in this Part of this Schedule and in sections 9 to 15 have the same meanings in this Part as in those sections.
- (3) For the purposes of bringing an initial appeal a person “would be eligible to request a review” if, at the time of bringing the initial appeal, the person would be entitled to make a request under—
- (a) section 9 for a review of the death to which the affected report relates, or
 - (b) section 10 for a review of the other Troubles-related circumstances to which the affected report relates;
- and, in determining whether the person would be entitled to make the request, the fact that a review has already been requested must be ignored.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) The following provisions apply to a determination (for the purposes of subparagraph (3)) of whether a person would be entitled to make a request under section 9.
- (5) In the case of a request under section 9(2), it is for the relevant court (rather than the Commissioner for Investigations) to decide the person’s entitlement to make the request (and accordingly section 9(7) does not apply).
- (6) In determining for the purposes of this Schedule whether a person is, under Schedule 3, a close family member of D, paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 3 has effect as if the following provision were substituted for paragraph (f)—
 - “(f) was a step-parent of D on the day of D’s death or is a step-parent of D on—
 - (i) the day on which the request for the review is made, or
 - (ii) the day when the initial appeal is brought;”.

- 1 (1) A person who is, or has ceased to be, a Commissioner, ICRIR officer or ICRIR contractor commits an offence if—

- (3) This paragraph does not apply to the communication of information by a person to another person in that other person’s capacity as a Commissioner, ICRIR officer, or ICRIR contractor.
- (4) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this paragraph to prove that at the time of the alleged offence the person did not know, and had no reasonable cause to believe, that the disclosure would, if it had been made by the ICRIR, have constituted a breach of a relevant prohibition on disclosure.

Penalties

- 2 A person guilty of an offence under this Schedule is liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine or both;

- (a) sensitive information, or
 - (b) prejudicial information.
- (2) That duty does not require the Commissioner for Investigations to identify information as sensitive information, or as prejudicial information, if (in accordance with paragraph 2 or 3) a relevant authority has notified the Commissioner for Investigations that that authority has identified the information as that kind of information.

PART 2

RELEVANT AUTHORITIES: IDENTIFICATION OF SENSITIVE OR PREJUDICIAL INFORMATION

Information made available by a relevant authority

- 2 (1) This paragraph applies if a relevant authority is proposing to make any information available to the ICRIR (whether in accordance with section 5 or otherwise).
- (2) The relevant authority must identify any of the information which, in the relevant authority's opinion, is—
- (a) sensitive information, or
 - (b) prejudicial information.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (3) When making the information available to the ICRIR, the relevant authority must notify the Commissioner for Investigations of any of the information which the relevant authority has identified in accordance with this paragraph.

Information made available by other persons

- (a) sensitive information,
 - (b) prejudicial information, or
 - (c) information of both of those kinds.

PART 3

SECRETARY OF STATE: IDENTIFICATION OF PROTECTED INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION

- 5 The Secretary of State may notify the Commissioner for Investigations of—
- (a) any information held by the ICRIR, or
 - (b) any information which any person is proposing to make available to the ICRIR,
- which, in the Secretary of State's opinion, is protected international information.

SCHEDULE 9

Section 43

DETERMINATION OF WHETHER THE PROHIBITION ON CIVIL ACTIONS APPLIES

Actions that contravene a section 43 prohibition

- 1 In this Schedule a reference to an action that contravenes a section 43 prohibition is a reference to a relevant Troubles-related civil action that—
- (a) is being continued in contravention of the prohibition in section 43(1), or
 - (b) has been brought in contravention of the prohibition in subsection 43(2).

Right of the Secretary of State to intervene

- 2 (1) This paragraph applies to an action if—
- (a) sufficient evidence is adduced to raise an issue as to whether it is an action that contravenes a section 43 prohibition, or
 - (b) it otherwise appears to the court that it may be an action that contravenes a section 43 prohibition.
- (2) The Secretary of State is entitled to be given notice, in accordance with rules of court, that it may be an action that contravenes a section 43 prohibition.
- (3) The Secretary of State (or a person nominated by the Secretary of State) is entitled, on giving notice in accordance with rules of court, to be joined as a party to the action.
- (4) Notice under sub-paragraph (3) may be given at any time during proceedings relating to the action.
- (5) A person who has been made a party to the action as the result of a notice under sub-paragraph (3) may take part in proceedings so far as they concern the question of whether it is an action that contravenes a section 43 prohibition.

- 3 (1) This paragraph applies to an action if sufficient evidence is adduced to raise an issue as to whether it is an action that contravenes a section 43 prohibition.
- (2) The court must determine the question of whether it is an action that contravenes a section 43 prohibition in accordance with this paragraph.
- (3) The court must assume that it is an action that contravenes the section 43 prohibition unless it is proved that the action does not do so.
- (4) If the court determines that it is an action that contravenes the section 43 prohibition, the court must dismiss the action.
- (5) But the powers of a court in relation to the determination or recovery of costs (in Northern Ireland or England and Wales) or expenses (in Scotland) of the action are not affected by that obligation to dismiss the action.
- (6) Accordingly, the court may comply with that obligation by dismissing the action subject to determination or recovery of costs or expenses.
- (7) The court—
- (a) must determine the question of whether it is an action that contravenes a section 43 prohibition before considering any other question arising in the action;
 - (b) must not, in the proceedings to determine the question of whether it is an action that contravenes a section 43 prohibition, consider any other question arising in the action.
- (8) But sub-paragraph (7) is subject to the following exceptions—
- (a) the court may consider—
 - (i) the question of whether it is an action that contravenes a section 43 prohibition, and
 - (ii) any question of limitation law arising in the action, in the same proceedings;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) the court need not comply with sub-paragraph (7)(a), or with sub-paragraph (7)(b), if the court considers that there are exceptional reasons for not complying with it.

 - (f) section 190 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1995, or
 - (g) any other legislation relating to limitation of actions.

Appeals etc

- 4 (1) This paragraph applies if, in accordance with paragraph 3, the court determines the question of whether an action contravenes a section 43 prohibition.
- (2) Section 43 does not stop any proceedings which relate to, or arise out of, the determination, including any appeal or proceedings for costs (in Northern Ireland or England and Wales) or expenses (in Scotland), from being begun or continued.
